

MEETING OF THE MASTERMINDS

On Thursday, Sept. 26, the Masterminds, a committee of several groups of Lehigh Valley business owners belonging to the Greater Lehigh Valley Chamber of Commerce, enjoyed their first annual gathering at the law office of Joe Zator in Allentown.

Members of the independent groups enjoyed meeting to discuss local business issues while noshing on elegant hors d'oeuvre and desserts.

"Some of these small groups have been around for 15 years," says committee chair Tina Hamilton. "The event helped everyone get together to share information and best practices."

Chamber members desiring additional information about Masterminds are encouraged to contact Hamilton at 610-443-0119 about upcoming orientations.
